

Code of Conduct Introduction

Amendments to the Conflicts of Interest Act in December 2017 required that Athabasca University modify its Codes of Conduct to meet new requirements provided under Part 4.3 of that Act.

Athabasca University's revised Codes have been reviewed and approved by the Ethics Commissioner of Alberta as meeting the requirements of the Act. The Codes are currently making their way through Athabasca University's internal governance approval process.

In accordance with section 23.923(5) of the Act, Athabasca University is publishing its Codes of Conduct so that affected stakeholders may be aware of pending changes. Once passed by governance, the Codes will be set to take effect September 1, 2019.

For more information on changes required by amendments to the Conflicts of Interest Act, visit the Government of Alberta website (external link).

- Code of Conduct for Members of the University Community