

ATHABASCA UNIVERSITY – ORDER OF AU INDUCTEES

YEAR	NAME	CONTRIBUTION
2017	Alvin Finkel	Commitment to scholarship, service and teaching and his long-standing dedication and commitment to Athabasca University.
2017	Diane Davies	Outstanding dedication to Athabasca University during her term as a public member of the Board of Governors (2010-16).
2017	Colette Miller	Outstanding dedication to Athabasca University during her term as a public member of the Board of Governors (2013-16).
2016	Terry Anderson	Recognition of his leadership in distance education and his contributions to scholarship and research at Athabasca University.
2016	Barry Walker	Recognition of his leadership and his outstanding dedication to Athabasca University during his ten-year term as a public member of the Board of Governors (2004-14), including five years as Board chair (2009-14).
2015	Open Our World Campaign Cabinet	Recognition of the members' commitment to and leadership of Athabasca University's first institutional campaign.
2014	James G. Donlevy	Recognition of his work in developing a partnership between Athabasca University and the Western Hockey League (WHL).
2014	Jill Matthew	Recognition of her commitment and dedication to Athabasca University during her two terms as a public member of the Board of Governors.
2013	Albert and Pirkko Karvonen	Recognition of contributions to environmental conservation and natural history education in Alberta and their support of Science Outreach – Athabasca.
2013	Brian Curial	Outstanding support of Athabasca University during his six-year term as a member of the Board of Governors (2006-12).

ATHABASCA UNIVERSITY – ORDER OF AU INDUCTEES

2012	RAIC Centre for Architecture Development Group	Recognition of the members' efforts towards the development, advocacy and promotion of the AU architecture program.
2011	Lisa Priebe	Recognition of her dedication to ensuring a high-quality student experience at Athabasca University.
2011	Tim Nerenz	Recognition of his efforts to broaden public awareness of Athabasca University and its mission.
2010	Dominique Abrioux	Recognition of his leadership and exemplary service to the university. (Served Athabasca University from 1978-2005, occupying the Office of the President 1995 – 2005)
2010	Joy Romero	Recognition of her leadership, support and commitment during her time on Athabasca University Governing Council (the Board), and her work in cultivating the launch of the Learning Communities Project.
2009	Bernard Wiese	Recognition of his significant contributions of two major collections to Athabasca University.
2008	Athabasca Advocacy Group	Recognition of their efforts on behalf of Athabasca University resulting in the mobilization of the entire Athabasca community in a concerted effort to obtain funding from the Provincial Government for capital expansion.
2008	David J. Burnett	Recognition of his hard work, focus, and dedication to Athabasca University as both a member and the Chair of Athabasca University Governing Council (the Board).
2007	Della McLean	Recognition of her hard work and dedication to Athabasca University both as a member of Athabasca University Governing Council (the Board) and her continued support as a contributing artist to the University and the Athabasca community as a whole.

ATHABASCA UNIVERSITY – ORDER OF AU INDUCTEES

2007	Lionel Cherniwchan	Recognition of his hard work and dedication to Athabasca University both as a member of Athabasca University Governing Council (the Board), and his involvement in the relocation of Athabasca University to the Town of Athabasca.
2006	Robert M. Fulton	Recognition of his hard work, and dedication to Athabasca University as a trusted advisor, and as both a public member and the Chair of Athabasca University Governing Council (the Board).
2006	Herbert C. Belcourt	Recognition of his hard work and dedication to Athabasca University as a member of Athabasca University Governing Council (the Board) and his generosity enabling the University to establish the Aboriginal Management Education project.
2006	Trilochan S. Bakshi	Recognition of his lengthy service to Athabasca University (1973 – 1990), including the authoring of many Science and Biology courses, and his dedication to the Athabasca community (founding father of the Athabasca Rotary Club).
1997	Emil Freddricks	Grandfathered in to the Order of Athabasca University
1979	Rita Fleming	Grandfathered in to the Order of Athabasca University
1979	Ted Mason	Grandfathered in to the Order of Athabasca University