Athabasca University General Faculties Council Rules

Approved November 8, 2011

Amended July 09, 2015

PART I      *Enactment, Definitions and Interpretation

A.      *Enactment

1. The rules of the Athabasca University General Faculties Council are enacted.

B.      *Amendment of Rules

1. Notice of any motion to enact, amend or repeal any rule of General Faculties Council will be given at the regular meeting of General Faculties Council before the General Faculties Council meeting at which the motion is to be considered or at an Executive Committee meeting before the General Faculties Council meeting at which the motion is to be considered.
2. Amendments to any rule of General Faculties Council must be approved by a majority of two thirds of the members of General Faculties Council whether present or not.
3. An amendment is effective on the date indicated in the motion. If no date is specified, then it becomes effective on the date of passing the amending motion.

C.      *Definitions and Interpretation of Rules

1. In these rules:
  - 1.1 Academic staff means academic staff who are appointed under the Faculty Association agreement to a full-time faculty position in which the person has been or may be granted tenure, and includes Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors, and Academic Coordinators.
  - 1.2 Act means the Post-Secondary Learning Act (SA 2003 cP-19.5).
  - 1.3 Appointed members shall mean those members of General Faculties Council whose appointments are made pursuant to section 10(1)(m) of the Regulation and section 25 of the Act.
  - 1.4 Board means The Governors of Athabasca University.
  - 1.5 Committee means a committee established by the General Faculties Council under Part III of these rules.
  - 1.6 General Faculties Council (GFC) means The Athabasca University General Faculties Council.
  - 1.7 Elected members shall mean those members of General Faculties Council whose appointments are made pursuant to section 10(1)(h) of the Regulation and section 24 of the Act.
  - 1.8 Member or Members means member(s) of General Faculties Council.
  - 1.9 Non-academic staff means staff members who are appointed to a full-time Professional or Excluded Professional position.
  - 1.10 Regulation means the Athabasca University Regulation (AR 50/2004).
  - 1.11 Student means a person registered and 'active' and in good standing at Athabasca University.

1.12 Tutor means a part time staff member who provides tutorial services to students and includes academic experts.

1.13 University means Athabasca University.

2. The headings used in these rules are for reference only.

3. These rules are subject to the Act and the Regulation. If any part of these rules is inconsistent with the Act or the Regulation or is unenforceable or invalid, the rest of the rules will be interpreted as if that part had not been included.

PART II      *General Faculties Council

A.      *Membership

1. The composition of the General Faculties Council is set in accordance with the Regulation and is not subject to alteration and amendment by the rules.

2. Terms of Office

Ex-officio (s. 10(1)(a) to (g) of the Regulation)

2.1 An ex-officio member shall be a member only while holding the University office that entitles the member to be an ex-officio member.

Elected faculty members (s.10(1)(h) of the Regulation)

2.2 A member elected by a faculty shall hold office for a term of three (3) years or until the member's successor is elected (s. 24(3) of the Act).

2.3 A member elected by a faculty ceases to hold office if the member ceases to be a full-time member of the academic staff of the faculty (s. 24(4) of the Act).

2.4 Notwithstanding paragraph 2.2, a faculty may elect a member to hold office for a term of less than three (3) years so as to provide overlapping terms of office for the representatives of the faculty and may when a member ceases to hold office before the expiry of that member's term of office, elect a new member to hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term (s. 24(5) of the Act).

Student members (s.10(1)(i) and (j) of the Regulation)

2.5 The students association members shall take office at the time designated for the changeover by the council of the students association, be appointed for a one (1) year term, and may be reappointed.

2.6 The graduate students association member shall take office at the time designated for the changeover by the council of the graduate students association, be appointed for a one (1) year term and may be reappointed.

Tutor member (s.10(1)(k) of the Regulation)

2.7 The tutor member shall take office at the time designated for the changeover of officers of the organization representing tutors, be appointed for a three (3) year term, and may be reappointed.

Non-academic staff members (s.10(1)(l) of the Regulation)

- 2.8 Non-academic staff members shall hold office for a term of three (3) years and may be reappointed.
- 2.9 A non-academic staff member ceases to hold office if the member ceases to be a member of the non-academic staff of the University.

Appointed members (s.10(1)(m) of the Regulation)

- 2.10 Appointed staff members shall hold office for a term of three (3) years.
- 2.11 Appointed students association and graduate students association members shall hold office for a term of one (1) year and may be reappointed.

Vacancies

- 2.12 When there is a vacancy before a term of office expires, the same body that nominated the member whose office has become vacant shall nominate a replacement by the date of the next General Faculties Council meeting. Appointments, excluding students and tutors, shall be approved by a simple majority vote of General Faculties Council at a regular meeting of General Faculties Council.
3. Members of the academic and non-academic staff on any combination of leave for over three (3) continuous months are ineligible to serve as members of General Faculties Council.
4. The General Faculties Council will continue to conduct its business despite any vacancy.
5. A person shall cease to be a member:
  - 5.1 upon receipt by the University Secretary of his or her resignation from the General Faculties Council in writing;
  - 5.2 on the expiry of his or her term of appointment to General Faculties Council or, in the case of members elected by a faculty, when the member's successor is elected;
  - 5.3 on the expiration of or effective date of resignation from an ex officio appointment;
  - 5.4 on the effective date of termination of appointment to the University, whether such termination is by resignation, expiration of appointment, or other cause;
  - 5.5 for student members:
    - 5.5.1 on the expiry of the appointment;
    - 5.5.2 as a condition of a student disciplinary action;
    - 5.5.3 when a student is no longer considered to be active or in good standing of Athabasca University; or
    - 5.5.4 when a resignation by a student member is received in writing by the University Secretary
  - 5.6 after missing three consecutive meetings, except for ex-officio members. The position shall be declared vacant.
6. The Chair shall be the President of the University as prescribed by section 10(1)(a) of the Regulation.
7. The Vice-Chair shall be the Vice-President, Academic of the University.
8. If the Chair is not present at the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Vice-Chair shall preside.
9. Members may not send alternates to meetings of General Faculties Council.

B. Responsibilities of Members

1. In exercising their powers and discharging their duties under the Act, the members shall:
  - 1.1 act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the University; and
  - 1.2 exercise the care, diligence, and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances

C. University Secretary or Designate

1. The University Secretary or designate will:
  - 1.1 give notice of meetings to members, attend all meetings and keep and make accessible regular minutes of all the proceedings;
  - 1.2 prepare and maintain a record of the current membership;
  - 1.3 prepare all resolutions, reports, or other documents that the General Faculties Council may direct and all copies that may be required of any such documents and papers;
  - 1.4 arrange for nominations and conduct elections of members of General Faculties Council and its committees; and
  - 1.5 discharge such other duties as are prescribed by the General Faculties Council or by the Chair thereof

D. General Faculties Council Year

1. The General Faculties Council year is July 1 to June 30 of the following year.

E. Powers and Duties

1. The powers and duties of the General Faculties Council and its members are established by the Act and the Regulation and if these rules or any resolutions passed by General Faculties Council in regard to its members are inconsistent with the provisions of the Act and the Regulation, the Act and the Regulation will govern.

F. Rules of Order

1. Except where altered by these rules, the most recently published version of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the proceedings of General Faculties Council.
2. At all meetings of General Faculties Council, the Chair shall maintain order and decorum, exercise the authority to exclude or cause to be removed from the meeting any persons whose improper conduct impedes the orderly transaction of business of General Faculties Council, and conduct the meeting in conformity with the rules of General Faculties Council.
3. Agendas
  - 3.1 The General Faculties Council Executive Committee shall approve the agenda outlining items of business for discussion at each regular or special meeting of General Faculties Council.
  - 3.2 A matter not on the agenda may be considered at a regular meeting of General Faculties Council, on a motion to consider the issue that is, supported by two-thirds of the members present. The member moving the consideration of the matter may briefly explain why the matter should be considered but the motion to consider the matter shall not be debated, unless permitted by the Chair.

4. Location and Time

- 4.1. Regular General Faculties Council meetings are normally held seven (7) times per year at AU Athabasca or a place chosen by the Chair or, in the absence of the Chair, by the General Faculties Council Executive Committee. Dates, times, and locations for regular General Faculties Council meetings shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

5. Notice

- 5.1 Once approved by the General Faculties Council Executive Committee, a schedule of regular General Faculties Council meetings for one (1) year (July 1 to June 30) shall be provided to members and posted.
- 5.2 Members shall normally receive at least seven (7) calendar days notice of a change in meeting location or date.
- 5.3 Members shall normally receive a meeting agenda and notice, including date, time, and location, at least seven (7) calendar days before a meeting date.
- 5.4 Notice to the public shall be sufficient if posted on the University's web site.

6. Quorum

- 6.1 A majority of the members of General Faculties Council, excluding vacant positions, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting.

7. Voting

- 7.1 Each member present, including the Chair and ex officio members, is entitled to one vote and only the members present may vote on any question.
- 7.2 When a question is put to vote by the Chair, members will indicate their vote in such manner as the Chair may direct. The Chair will declare the result of the vote and such declaration will be conclusive. If, prior to the time when the Chair has undertaken to determine the vote, any three members request that a count of the votes be recorded, then the number of votes for and against the question will be counted and this count recorded in the minutes of the meeting. If any member wishes to record his or her abstention from voting on any question, the member must do so immediately following the declaration by the Chair. Abstentions will not be counted.
- 7.3 If in the opinion of the Chair, or the chair of one of the Standing Committees, it is desirable to pass a motion or resolution outside of a regularly scheduled meeting, or when in the opinion of the Chair or the chair of one of the Standing Committees it is impracticable to hold a special meeting, a resolution passed by written response by at least 75 per cent of General Faculties Council or committee membership polled by fax, e-mail, or other technologically-assisted means shall be valid.
- 7.4 Voting by proxy is not permitted.

8. Meeting by Telephone or other Means

- 8.1 General Faculties Council and Committees established by General Faculties Council may meet by telephone or other means of communication that allow all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. Any member participating in such a meeting is considered present at the meeting.

- 8.2 General Faculties Council and Committees established by General Faculties Council may meet asynchronously by any means of communication that allow all persons participating in the meeting to read or hear all comments presented. A member participating in such a meeting is deemed to be present at the meeting.
9. Special Meetings
- 9.1 The University Secretary or designate shall call a special meeting when requested to do so by the Chair or upon receipt of a request, in writing, signed by not fewer than fifteen (15) members.
- 9.2 A special meeting shall only deal with the business for which it is called.
10. Questions Decided by Majority
- 10.1 Unless otherwise expressly provided in these rules, all questions that come before General Faculties Council shall be decided by a majority of the members present. In the case of a tie, the question shall be deemed to have been decided in the negative.
11. Decisions by Resolution to be Recorded
- 11.1 Except where General Faculties Council exercises its powers by by-law or where it is otherwise provided herein, the decision of General Faculties Council regarding any matter coming before it will be made by resolution and will be recorded in the minutes of General Faculties Council.
12. Open and In Camera Sessions
- 12.1 Subject to the other provisions of this section, all meetings of General Faculties Council are open to the public unless, by resolution, the majority of the members present choose to go into an in camera session.
- 12.2 The Executive Committee shall determine and identify on the agenda any item that might reasonably engage or disclose confidential financial or personal information about a person or people during the debate of that item. Such determination by the Executive Committee may not be challenged. The debate on that item shall be conducted in camera, unless the person or all of the people whose confidential financial or personal information is engaged request that the item be debated in public.
- 12.3 If during public debate in General Faculties Council the Chair decides that confidential financial or personal information about a person or people might be disclosed, the Chair may declare a recess to consider whether further debate in public would be inappropriate. If the Chair decides that further debate in public would be inappropriate, the remainder of the debate on that item shall be conducted in camera, unless the person or all of the people whose confidential information is engaged request that the item be debated in public.
- 12.4 Minutes of any part of a meeting of General Faculties Council that is held in camera to avoid public disclosure of confidential financial or personal information about any person or people, including a record of decisions taken, shall not form part of the regular minutes of General Faculties Council but shall be kept separately by the University Secretary and made available for scrutiny only to members of General Faculties Council and to anyone who may be authorized by the Executive Committee to see them. The regular minutes shall recite only that General Faculties Council moved in camera to discuss an item.
- 12.5 When General Faculties Council conducts its proceedings in camera, all persons who are not members shall withdraw from the meeting with the normal exception of the University Secretary, and such named persons as may be specifically invited by General Faculties Council to remain.

- 12.6 An in camera session of General Faculties Council ends with the adjournment of the meeting or following a resolution to return to open session.
- 12.7 Notwithstanding the provisions of confidentiality outlined in these rules, where the Executive Committee considers it to be in the public interest that such decision be publicly recorded, it may enter into the regular minutes a statement of the decision taken in camera. Such statements will not indicate the grounds upon which General Faculties Council arrived at its decision or the nature of the debate preceding such decision.

13. Debate of General Faculties Council

- 13.1 A person who is not a member may not participate in debate in any meeting of General Faculties Council unless:

- 13.1.1 such person is invited by the Chair to participate in a specified manner; or

- 13.1.2 the members decide by a two-thirds majority of the members present that a named individual be heard. In such a case, the mover may briefly indicate reasons why the named individual should be heard, but otherwise the motion shall not be debatable.

- 13.2 Any person so invited to participate in debate shall be bound by the rules of order prescribed by the rules of General Faculties Council.

14. Minutes of the Meeting

- 14.1 Draft minutes of each regular or special meeting shall be prepared and made available for review prior to the next regular meeting of General Faculties Council, at which they shall be considered for approval.

- 14.2 Once adopted by General Faculties Council (after any necessary corrections or amendments), the approved minutes shall be made available in a timely manner on the University's web site.

G. Confidentiality

1. Except as required by operation of law, each member shall ensure all confidential General Faculties Council records and information to which they have access and/or are in their custody by virtue of General Faculties Council membership, remain confidential.
2. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the proceedings of any meeting or part of a meeting of General Faculties Council or its committees conducted in camera, including the minutes or any other records concerning any such meetings or part thereof, will be kept in confidence by every member and by any other person invited or permitted to attend any such meeting or part thereof.
3. A member's duty to maintain the confidentiality of records and information shall continue after the member ceases to be a member of General Faculties Council.

H. Conflict of Interest

1. General Faculties Council members and members of committees of the General Faculties Council must be guided by the best interests of the University, the welfare of the University community, and the honest and good faith discharge of their powers and duties under the Act.
2. A General Faculties Council member who has a conflict of interest with respect to a matter that comes before the General Faculties Council shall disclose the conflict when speaking to the matter in the General Faculties Council meeting, and shall be recused from voting on any motion to which the conflict relates. Notwithstanding anything else in these Rules, for the purpose of determining a majority of votes on any motion, members recused by reason of conflict of interest shall be deemed not to be present or participating in that part of the meeting to which the recusal applies.

PART III Official Records

1. Records

1.1 The University Secretary or designate will maintain the following records:

- 1.1.1 minutes and agendas of all General Faculties Council meetings and minutes and agendas of all committee meetings;
- 1.1.2 a register of General Faculties Council members and its committee members;
- 1.1.3 other records as required by General Faculties Council

PART IV Academic Seal

Academic Seal and Signing Authority

1. Academic Seal

The seal shall be the seal of the University for academic purposes. It shall be in the custody of the University Secretary or such other person as the General Faculties Council may from time to time designate.

2. Authority to Use Academic Seal

Any diplomas, documents, or instruments in writing requiring execution under the academic seal on behalf of the University, except official transcripts of student records and documents attesting to information contained on student records, shall be signed by any two of:

- the Registrar,
- the Vice-President, Academic,
- the Chair of the Board, and
- the President

Official transcripts of student records and documents attesting to information contained on student records shall be signed by the Registrar or designate.

Any diploma, document, or instrument in writing given under seal and signed as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been given under the academic authority of the University, without further authorization or formality. Such diplomas, documents, or instruments in writing given under the academic seal and signed as aforesaid may bear in addition the signature of such other officers as may be deemed appropriate by the General Faculties Council.

3. Applications of Academic Seal to be Recorded

All applications of the academic seal shall be recorded. Each entry shall include the date of use, a title or brief description of the diploma, document, or instrument in writing being executed, and a record of those persons signing on behalf of the University.

4. Mechanical Reproduction

The signatures of the Chair of the Board, the Registrar, the Vice-President Academic, and the President may be engraved, lithographed, printed, stamped, or otherwise reproduced mechanically on any document or instrument in writing executed under the academic seal of the University.

5. Appointment of Others to Sign Academic Documents

The signatures of such others as may be deemed appropriate by the board may likewise be engraved, lithographed, printed, stamped, or otherwise reproduced mechanically on any document or instrument in writing executed under the academic seal of the University.

6. Custody and Use

The Registrar and the University Secretary are responsible for the proper custody and use of any such mechanical means of reproduction of signatures and any such use shall be first authorized by the signatory.

PART V      Committees

The Act gives General Faculties Council responsibility, subject to the authority of the Board, over “academic affairs” (s. 26(1)).

Also, the Act permits General Faculties Council to delegate any of its powers, duties and functions under the Act as it sees fit and to prescribe conditions governing the exercise or performance of any delegated power, duty, or function, including the power of sub-delegation (s. 26(3)).

A.      General

1. General Faculties Council may by resolution establish committees to deal with matters of interest.
2. When a committee is formed, General Faculties Council shall determine:
  - 2.1 the name of the committee;
  - 2.2 whether the committee will be a Standing Committee or an Ad Hoc Committee (e.g., a task force, a working group, or an advisory group);
  - 2.3 the number of members of the committee;
  - 2.4 any conditions General Faculties Council determines are appropriate regarding the composition of the committee’s membership and number or composition of the committee’s supporting staff, if any;
  - 2.5 terms of reference of the committee;
  - 2.6 any other matters in respect to functions, powers, duties, or operation of the committee that General Faculties Council may feel are appropriate; and
  - 2.7 if the committee is an Ad Hoc Committee, the date or event which shall result in the dissolution of the committee
3. General Faculties Council may, by resolution, dissolve any committee at any time.
4. General Faculties Council may, by resolution, modify any of the conditions established in accordance with section 2 of this part of these rules in regard to any committee, at any time.
5. The terms of reference of all committees shall be subject to biannual review by General Faculties Council and may be modified at any time by resolution of General Faculties Council.
6. At the first meeting of the General Faculties Council in the new academic year, the University Secretary shall advise of any standing committee that has not met during the past year.

7. Unless otherwise specified, Standing and Ad Hoc Committees shall be subject to the same procedural rules as the General Faculties Council.
8. Unless otherwise specified, the University Secretary or designate shall be secretary to a committee.
9. The chair of each committee shall report on the deliberations and actions of that committee to the next regularly scheduled meeting of General Faculties Council.
10. Unless otherwise provided in these rules, the University Secretary or designate shall keep and make accessible minutes of all meetings of all committees, in the same manner as the minutes of meetings of the General Faculties Council.
11. Committee Membership
  - 11.1 Committee members shall be elected at the time the committee is formed and thereafter yearly at the June meeting of the General Faculties Council or as required to fill vacancies.
