

Thesis/Dissertation Copyright Declaration

This form is completed by the student, before the final oral examination is being arranged (in the case of a master's degree this should occur 6 to 8 weeks before the anticipated oral examination date; in the case of a doctoral degree it should occur at the time an external examiner is being arranged). The student completes the declaration and submits a copy to their supervisor at that time. A copy of this declaration must be given to FGS at the time the final approved thesis/dissertation is submitted to the dThesis repository.

This thesis or dissertation is a public document and therefore it is necessary to ensure that due acknowledgement is made, where appropriate, before it is published.
