
Maximum Course Load Policy

Effective Date:

January 31, 2001

Purpose

To enable the University to limit a student's course load.

Definitions

Concurrent	Courses existing or in operation at the same time or together.
Maximum Course Load	The maximum number of courses a student may be actively registered in at one time.

Policy

Students may not normally be currently active in more than six (6) courses at any given time.

The maximum of six (6) Athabasca University courses includes courses with an "Incomplete Status," but does not include pre-registered or wait listed courses.
